About The Grove

Nestling in the heart of the beautiful Pembrokeshire countryside, The Grove offers one of Wales's finest gastronomic experiences. We are surrounded by manicured lawns, flower borders, meadows and mature trees – and a region that offers a great selection of delicious ingredients.

We are renowned as one of the country's most unique luxury hotel restaurants.

We are renowned as one of the country's most unique luxury hotel restaurants. We have 12 intimate guest rooms and four traditional cottages that are full of character – with interiors individually designed to the highest standards. Gaze out of our windows for scenic views of the Preseli mountains, or make the short trip to Pembrokeshire National Park for stunning country walks.

We're proud to say our cuisine has won national awards and critical acclaim, including AA Rosettes, Wales Tourism Awards and listing in the Good Food Guide 2011. All our dishes are served with creativity and flair, and many of our ingredients come from our very own kitchen garden – providing ultra-fresh flavours to delight every palette.

We want your stay with us to be relaxing, enjoyable and focused on fantastic food. The Grove is the perfect setting to unwind and enjoy the best of Welsh cuisine, and a truly memorable stay in Pembrokeshire.

The Restaurant

Our award-winning restaurant serves modern British food using locally sourced ingredients that are as fresh as possible.

Our head chef, Duncan designs his delicious lunch and dinner menus using the finest meats and vegetables of the season. Have a look at our current menus – we hope they will tempt you.

The Grove offers a truly intimate and sumptuous dining experience with warming log fires throughout the house. The Orangery restaurant is surrounded by trees, gardens and wildflower meadows to provide a magnificent setting whatever the time of year. Its terrace is also perfect for enjoying alfresco eating throughout the summer months.

Come and enjoy great food, fine wines and flickering candles at The Grove.

Pembrokeshire

Whether you want to explore the stunning coastal walking, its sandy beaches, picturesque bays and pretty harbour villages, or wander around the many boutiques and galleries of Narberth, we are perfectly located.

For those wishing to explore closer to the house there are plenty of walks and bridleways with various points of interest all waiting to be discovered; a deserted Welsh chapel, an ancient settlement perched on the hill and Canaston woods. Locally you can also find fabulous mountain biking trails, fishing, sailing, surfing, riding and the high-adrenaline sport of coasteering to mention just a few.

Pembrokeshire is home to sandy beaches, picturesque bays and pretty harbour villages
